

FEMA

Disaster Recovery Center in Oakland Will Remain Open Until March 16

If you are an Alameda County resident and if you, your home, or your business experienced damage or losses from the winter rain storms earlier this year, you may be eligible for federal, state, or county assistance.

Come in person to sign up.

- Dublin location will close on Friday, February 24, 7 p.m.
- Oakland location extended dates with new hours and modified services, starting Saturday, February 25.
- Closed Sundays

Disaster Recovery Center

Location: 7001 Oakport Street, Oakland, CA

Dates/Times:

- Friday, February 24, 10 a.m. - 7 p.m.
- Saturday, February 25 - Thursday, March 16, 2023; 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Translation services available.

Have this information with you:

- Social Security or Tax ID Number
- Address of damaged home
- Current phone number
- Address where you can get mail or email notifications
- Insurance information, if available
- Bank account and routing number to receive direct deposit of funds