CHILDREN & FAMILY SERVICES

Abuse & Neglect Investigation

Emergency Response/Child Abuse Hotline for County Child Protective Services:

24 Hour Hotline: 510-259-1800

The hotline responds to law enforcement, hospitals, mandated reporters, and the general public who call to report child abuse or to get information. The hotline also provides consultation on potential referrals and provides information about community services.

During business hours (7:30 am - 5:30 pm weekdays), hotline referrals and reports regarding children alleged to be endangered by abuse, neglect, or exploitation, are received by the Emergency Response screening unit.

After hours (7:00 pm - 7:00 am) and on weekends/holidays, calls are received at Eden Information and Referral (Eden I&R) and referred to after-hours workers.

Child Abuse Prevention Services and Resources

Prevention efforts build on family strengths. Through prevention activities such as parent education, home visitation, and parent support groups, many families are able to find the support they need to stay together and care for their children in their homes and communities. Prevention efforts help parents develop their parenting skills, understanding and meeting their child's emotional, physical, and developmental needs.

Prevention programs can also help parents identify other needs they may have and offer assistance in getting that additional support.

The Child Abuse Prevention Council is an organization established in 1978 to foster cooperative child protection efforts in Alameda County and to encourage the development and coordination of county-wide children's services. This includes child abuse and neglect identification, reporting, prevention, intervention, treatment and public awareness.

The membership of the Council is composed of individuals, agencies and organizations concerned about the problem of child abuse and neglect. The Council is active in several activities which help prevent child abuse.

To find out more, visit their website at Alameda County Child Abuse Prevention Council (<https://www.alamedacountycapc.com/>)

Family Reunification & Maintenance

Family Reunification (FR) aims to reunite the child with his/her parent in a safe, stable, supportive home. All FR cases involve children who have been removed from parental care and custody. Services to help reunify the family are provided for various periods of time, established by state and federal law.

Family Maintenance (FM) works with families whose children have been made dependents of the court due to abuse or neglect, but who remain in the home as ongoing safety assessment permits while services are being provided. The goal is to maintain and strengthen the family unit whenever possible.

Informal Family Maintenance is a non- court intervention for families who are willing to participate in voluntary services and a program of informal case management.

For more information on Family Maintenance or Preservation Services, please visit: <https://www.alamedacountysocialservices.org/our-services/Youth/other-support/family-maintenance>

Guardianship Services

Relatives and non-relatives can become Legal Guardians of a foster child.

The Social Services Agency's Legal Guardianship unit works with guardians residing in Alameda County who are non- relatives receiving a foster care subsidy.

Child Welfare Workers stay in contact with the guardian and the youth meeting with them a minimum of two times a year (every 6 months), providing case management services with an emphasis on referrals and intervention.

For more info:

<https://www.alamedacountysocialservices.org/our-services/Youth/resource-families/tabs/legal-guardianship-adoption>

Foster Care Services

Placement Services provide responsive and comprehensive services to children in need of out-of-home placement. Placement in the home of an available and willing relative is the first choice for an out-of-home placement for every child.

Foster Care Eligibility determines the initial and continuing eligibility of children in out- of-home care for Medi-Cal and financial assistance programs such as Aid to Families with Dependent Children – Foster Care (AFDC-FC).

Foster Care Information line:
510-268-2500

Current caregivers and providers may call with eligibility-related questions regarding a foster child.

Adoptions

Alameda County Social Services Agency is licensed as a Public Adoption Agency by the California Department of Social Services. The Adoptions Program provides services related to the adoption of court- dependent children in the child welfare system, a process referred to as agency adoption.

The Adoption Program also provides independent and stepparent adoption services for non-dependent children.
